Ok. That's the one day I might be out. Will call in for sure if working.

Connell -

I just forwarded an invitation to you regarding a briefing on Rosemont for the new OW deputy AA next Thursday. Jeannie, Nicole, and I will all be out that day, and I can't tell whether Kathleen is available or not. If you are available, please call-in. Nancy Woo will also be on the call. I checked with her this afternoon and she said that it is just a briefing to bring the new OW person up to speed, and there is no new development, but I think it would be helpful to hear how OW is briefing its leadership on this project and what sorts of questions might arise. No need for you to weigh in on anything, just fill me in later on what transpires. If you are not available, it is not a problem.

Thanks –

-Kathy
